

© Copyright International Organization for Standardization, see: www.iso.org/iso/copyright.htm
 No reproduction on networking permitted without license from ISO

DDE Supplement / Attachment

DDE Number	DDEName
264	Connector Pivot X-Offset (CPX)

Some connector types are equipped with a pivot point which will influence the accuracy of applications as section control, prescription or sequence control. The Pivot X-Offset DDI is used to define the distance from the device DRP to the connector pivot point in X direction.

This new DDI shall be only attached to a DET element of type connector.

